All rooms and some meals will be master billed, covered by RULE. The RULE Program Staff reserves the right to assign roommates for each weekend to a double room (scholarship recipients will automatically be assigned to a double room). For those individuals requiring a single room, the entire room cost will be assessed and payable after each session. Exceptions are made for medical reasons.

Any bills, telephone charges, damages, and all incidentals will be the responsibility of the individual and must be settled upon check-out each weekend.
