CONSIDER A PERSONAL INVESTMENT.

Before you flip the page, I am not after your money. I am encouraging an investment in something that will last the rest of your life—you.

Leadership development can actually be an alternative fuel source for your personal and professional engine. Our statewide leadership program is called RULE—The Pennsylvania Rural Leadership Program. We are currently recruiting candidates for a new class and accepting nominations. Please see our web site at www.rule.psu.edu, call 814-863-4679, or e-mail at rule1@psu.edu.

RULE Highlights

- RULE is the only program mandated by State law (House Bill 1492, Act 62)
- RULE is a member of the International Association of Programs for Agricultural Leaders (IAPAL)
- RULE participates annually in the International Leadership Alumni Conference (ILAC)
- Our RULE Alumni base is over 500 strong

RULE is a program of the Pennsylvania State University

Learning Today, Leading Tomorrow is a thirteen-session program to develop leadership skills. Topics include personal leadership skills such as values and ethics; interpersonal skills including communication, facilitation, and conflict management; group leadership skills such as effective meeting management and group decision-making; and public policy leadership skills for dealing with local government and public issues, as well as community change. Individual sessions can also be delivered as a “stand-alone” program for interested groups.
